23rd to 27th October 2018 (Tuesday to Saturday)

Your Excursions

Sunday: Make your own way to London Gatwick Airport for your flight with Ryanair to Cork. You will be met by your coach and transported to the hotel.

Monday: Today we visit Kilkenny, a well-preserved medieval city with a restored castle and narrow alleyways. Our scenic route skirts the Blackstairs Mountain range, designated "Special Area of Conservation" with breath-taking scenery.

Tuesday: Today we make our way to historic Cobh from where more than 2.5 people emigrated to escape poverty and famine. If you wish to visit 'The Titanic Experience Cobh' or the Cobh Heritage Centre this will be at extra cost.

Wednesday: We tour through the wonderful Wicklow Mountains, pausing at the stunning vista of Glendalough and the Wicklow Gap. County Wexford has a maritime past and is now a peaceful and tranquil land, with sandy beaches, fertile pastures, isolated mountain ranges and ancient sites that all combine to make this a truly memorable excursion.

Thursday: Visit Cork with time to explore before we make our way by coach for our return flight to London Heathrow. Make your own way home.
